Mrs. Marlon King Is Hostess to Durham Chapter—Interesting Papers Read.

HATCOON CLUB HOLDS MEETING
Hostess for Occasion Is Mrs. C. C. Thomas, and Officers for Ensuing Year Are Elected—Mrs. M. N. Krug Is Made President.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DURHAM, N. C., March 13.—Mrs. Marlon King, at her home on Parish place, on Wednesday afternoon charmingly entertained the members of the Durham Chapter of the American Revolution. The literary program was a fine one. A most excellent paper on "Dolly Madison" by Mrs. T. M. Gorman, was read by Mrs. Arch Cheatham. Mrs. W. K. Boyd read a very instructive paper on "Ye Olden Times." This was followed by an informal social hour over the tea cups.

The Hatcoon Literary Club held a delightful meeting on Thursday morning with Mrs. C. C. Thomas, of Dillard street. The meeting was devoted entirely to business, arranging the program for the coming year and election of officers. Officers elected are: Mrs. M. N. Krug, president; Mrs. G. H. Beall, vice-president; Mrs. Albert Webb, secretary; Mrs. J. S. Cobb, treasurer.

The Girls' Friendly Society held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday evening in the parish house. During Lent the members are devoting an hour or so each week to the study of good literature. The meetings are presided over by the president, Mrs. J. Harper Erwin.

J. S. Long and family, of Tullock, Cal., who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Petty while in this city, have gone to Greensboro to spend a few days before returning to their home in California.

Little Miss Bert and Master Thomas Jones entertained a number of their little friends on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, in honor of their respective birthdays.

Thursday evening the Zusammen Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Helen Chapman and Miss Carrie Wilson at the latter's home. After transacting business, rock was played. Mrs. W. P. Few was hostess to the Up-to-Date Literary Club on Friday afternoon at her home on Trinity campus. The home was beautifully decorated with vases of carnations and jonquils. The subject was "Woman's Part in Public Betterment." Miss Mary Haynes read an excellent paper on "Woman in Prison Reform," followed by a general discussion. Dr. W. P. Laprade gave an instructive address on "Woman." A delightful lunch was served in the dining-room. The guests were aided in finding their places around the table by means of miniature women dressed in suffrage garb.

Mrs. O. B. Motley has returned to her home in Danville, Va., after a visit to Mrs. A. C. Stallings in this city.

Miss Bertha Boughton was hostess to a number of her friends on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at a bridge party, complimentary to her house guest, Miss Jean Roy, of Rochester, N. Y.
